Upcoming Duke Muslim Life Events

Fajr Breakfast Club

When:	Wednesday, October 15, 2025 09:00 AM to Wednesday, October 15, 2025 11:00 AM
Where:	Sign in to download the location
RSVP:	https://duke.campusgroups.com/rsvp?id=2274846

The Fajr Breakfast Club meets every Wednesday morning just before sunrise for the first prayer of the day, Fajr. This gathering blends spiritual practice and social connection as students, faculty, staff, alumni, and community members come together in the quiet beauty of the early morning. After prayer, everyone shares a home-cooked, nutritious breakfast prepared by the Chaplain, creating a warm and welcoming environment where meaningful conversations flow naturally. The Chaplain also picks up students from across campus in a Duke van, ensuring that everyone who wants to be part of this spiritual and social community can join. Hosted in the CML office, the Fajr Breakfast Club offers a chance to start the day rooted in faith, friendship, and a sense of belonging.
Objectives:
1. Encourage students to gather for spiritual reflection and prayer.
2. Strengthen community bonds and belonging across campus.

Jumu'ah Prayer Service

When:	Friday, October 17, 2025 05:00 PM to Friday, October 17, 2025 06:00 PM
Where:	McClendon Tower 5th Floor, Durham, NC 27708, United States
RSVP:	https://duke.campusgroups.com/rsvp?id=2270943

The Jumu'ah Prayer Service is a weekly gathering offering Duke students a sacred space to observe Friday prayers in a warm and inclusive environment. Rooted in the Islamic tradition of communal worship, this service provides an opportunity for spiritual reflection, connection, and growth. Open to all, the Jumuah Prayer Service fosters a sense of belonging, strengthens community ties, and bridges faith with academic, intellectual, and personal development. It serves as both a religious observance and a space for meaningful engagement, supporting Muslim students in their spiritual journey while contributing to Duke’s diverse campus life.
Objective:
1. Foster a warm and inclusive environment where students feel safe to practice their faith and grow spiritually.
2. Build and strengthen meaningful connections among campus community members.
3. Advance the broader university goal of bridging knowledge, faith, and values of Muslim students.

Bean Pie and Chai Family Event

When:	Saturday, October 18, 2025 03:00 PM to Saturday, October 18, 2025 07:00 PM
Where:	The Center for Muslim Life, Few GG, 420 Chapel Dr., Durham 27708, United States
RSVP:	https://duke.campusgroups.com/rsvp?id=2270488

Bean Pie & Chai is a casual gathering held during Duke's Family Weekend, inviting the families of Muslim students to visit the Center for Muslim Life (CML) and meet the staff who support their children throughout the year. This event creates a welcoming and relaxed space for parents, students, and family members to connect over bean pies, a distinctive African American dish, and chai, a drink familiar in many immigrant Muslim communities. It's a celebration of culture and community, reinforcing the idea that the Duke Muslim community is a diverse and caring family away from home.
Objectives:
1. Build a sense of belonging and trust between Muslim students and their families
2. Highlight the supportive and inclusive environment of the Duke Muslim community

Been Here, Still Here: Muslims and Islamophobia in the US

When:	Thursday, November 13, 2025 03:00 PM to Thursday, November 13, 2025 05:00 PM
Where:	Brodhead Center, The Bolton Family Tower, 3rd floor , Durham, NC 27708, United States
RSVP:	https://duke.campusgroups.com/rsvp?id=2273303

This interactive training invites Duke departmental staff to explore the history, impact, and current realities of Islamophobia in the United States. Participants engage with stories, data, and campus context to gain a deeper understanding of Muslim presence in America and how narratives of exclusion continue to shape perception and experience. While focused on Muslim students, the training supports broader learning for university staff by challenging assumptions, expanding cultural fluency, and strengthening inclusive practices across campus. Whether in student-facing roles or administrative work, staff leave better equipped to foster a university environment grounded in understanding, equity, and care.
Objectives
1. Provide a historical overview of Muslim presence in the U.S. and how narratives of exclusion have developed over time
2. Identify how Islamophobia shows up in campus environments, policies, and interpersonal interactions
3. Equip staff with awareness, language, and strategies to support Muslim students and contribute to a more informed and equity-minded campus culture

Rooted in the Islamic tradition of communal worship, this service provides an opportunity for spiritual reflection, connection, and growth. Open to all, the Jumuah Prayer Service fosters a sense of belonging, strengthens community ties, and bridges faith with academic, intellectual, and personal development. It serves as both a religious observance and a space for meaningful engagement, supporting Muslim students in their spiritual journey while contributing to Duke’s diverse campus life.
Objective:
1. Foster a warm and inclusive environment where students feel safe to practice their faith and grow spiritually.
2. Build and strengthen meaningful connections among campus community members.
3. Advance the broader university goal of bridging knowledge, faith, and values of Muslim students.

The Fajr Breakfast Club meets every Wednesday morning just before sunrise for the first prayer of the day, Fajr. This gathering blends spiritual practice and social connection as students, faculty, staff, alumni, and community members come together in the quiet beauty of the early morning. After prayer, everyone shares a home-cooked, nutritious breakfast prepared by the Chaplain, creating a warm and welcoming environment where meaningful conversations flow naturally. The Chaplain also picks up students from across campus in a Duke van, ensuring that everyone who wants to be part of this spiritual and social community can join. Hosted in the CML office, the Fajr Breakfast Club offers a chance to start the day rooted in faith, friendship, and a sense of belonging.
Objectives:
1. Encourage students to gather for spiritual reflection and prayer.
2. Strengthen community bonds and belonging across campus.

Kitab Connect is a weekly Quran study group that meets every Tuesday from 6:00 to 7:30 PM. The first 30 minutes are dedicated to reading the Quran in Arabic, followed by an hour of group discussion inspired by the reading. Participants include students, faculty, staff, alumni, and community members, creating a rich and diverse environment for learning. Open to all regardless of Arabic reading ability, Kitab Connect encourages participants to read, listen, or simply share. The discussions are guided by what participants are moved to explore that evening, making each session unique and engaging. This casual, inclusive gathering intentionally creates a sense of comfort and openness, recognizing that everyone has different experiences with Islam, Muslims, and the Quran.
Objectives:
1. Cultivate a meaningful relationship with the Quran, both individually and as a community.
2. Build an open and inviting environment where questions are encouraged and diverse perspectives are valued.
