Where:	Sign in to download the location
RSVP:	https://duke.campusgroups.com/rsvp?id=2270356

Kitab Connect is a weekly Quran study group that meets every Tuesday from 6:00 to 7:30 PM. The first 30 minutes are dedicated to reading the Quran in Arabic, followed by an hour of group discussion inspired by the reading. Participants include students, faculty, staff, alumni, and community members, creating a rich and diverse environment for learning. Open to all regardless of Arabic reading ability, Kitab Connect encourages participants to read, listen, or simply share. The discussions are guided by what participants are moved to explore that evening, making each session unique and engaging. This casual, inclusive gathering intentionally creates a sense of comfort and openness, recognizing that everyone has different experiences with Islam, Muslims, and the Quran.

Objectives:

1. Cultivate a meaningful relationship with the Quran, both individually and as a community.
  2. Build an open and inviting environment where questions are encouraged and diverse perspectives are valued.

--------------	---

The Fajr Breakfast Club meets every Wednesday morning just before sunrise for the first prayer of the day, Fajr. This gathering blends spiritual practice and social connection as students, faculty, staff, alumni, and community members come together in the quiet beauty of the early morning. After prayer, everyone shares a home-cooked, nutritious breakfast prepared by the Chaplain, creating a warm and welcoming environment where meaningful conversations flow naturally. The Chaplain also picks up students from across campus in a Duke van, ensuring that everyone who wants to be part of this spiritual and social community can join. Hosted in the CML office, the Fajr Breakfast Club offers a chance to start the day rooted in faith, friendship, and a sense of belonging.

Objectives:

1. Encourage students to gather for spiritual reflection and prayer.
  2. Strengthen community bonds and belonging across campus.

Holding On Together: A CML Spiritual Retreat

As the academic year begins, the Center for Muslim Life invites students, staff, and faculty to join us for Holding On Together, an overnight spiritual retreat focused on connection and reflection. Held in the peace of the outdoors, the retreat is designed to help participants renew and purify their intentions for the year, build bonds of sisterhood and brotherhood, and draw closer to Allah.

The retreat will take place at a local campsite just outside of Durham and will feature outdoor prayer, hiking, guided reflections, inspirational talks, and meaningful campfire conversations. Multiple speakers from Duke and the surrounding area will offer spiritual insights and practical advice as we prepare for the year ahead. Transportation will be provided for students.

Objectives:

1. Deepen spiritual resilience, hope, and trust in Allah through nature-based reflection and community worship.
  2. Strengthen bonds of sisterhood and brotherhood across students, staff, and faculty in an open and welcoming environment.
  3. Reinforce the CML community as a source of spiritual and emotional support throughout the year.

The Fajr Breakfast Club meets every Wednesday morning just before sunrise for the first prayer of the day, Fajr. This gathering blends spiritual practice and social connection as students, faculty, staff, alumni, and community members come together in the quiet beauty of the early morning. After prayer, everyone shares a home-cooked, nutritious breakfast prepared by the Chaplain, creating a warm and welcoming environment where meaningful conversations flow naturally. The Chaplain also picks up students from across campus in a Duke van, ensuring that everyone who wants to be part of this spiritual and social community can join. Hosted in the CML office, the Fajr Breakfast Club offers a chance to start the day rooted in faith, friendship, and a sense of belonging.

Objectives:

1. Encourage students to gather for spiritual reflection and prayer.
  2. Strengthen community bonds and belonging across campus.

Kitab Connect is a weekly Quran study group that meets every Tuesday from 6:00 to 7:30 PM. The first 30 minutes are dedicated to reading the Quran in Arabic, followed by an hour of group discussion inspired by the reading. Participants include students, faculty, staff, alumni, and community members, creating a rich and diverse environment for learning. Open to all regardless of Arabic reading ability, Kitab Connect encourages participants to read, listen, or simply share. The discussions are guided by what participants are moved to explore that evening, making each session unique and engaging. This casual, inclusive gathering intentionally creates a sense of comfort and openness, recognizing that everyone has different experiences with Islam, Muslims, and the Quran.

Objectives:

1. Cultivate a meaningful relationship with the Quran, both individually and as a community.
  2. Build an open and inviting environment where questions are encouraged and diverse perspectives are valued.
