Where:	Sign in to download the location
RSVP:	https://duke.campusgroups.com/rsvp?id=2270398

Kitab Connect is a weekly Quran study group that meets every Tuesday from 6:00 to 7:30 PM. The first 30 minutes are dedicated to reading the Quran in Arabic, followed by an hour of group discussion inspired by the reading. Participants include students, faculty, staff, alumni, and community members, creating a rich and diverse environment for learning. Open to all regardless of Arabic reading ability, Kitab Connect encourages participants to read, listen, or simply share. The discussions are guided by what participants are moved to explore that evening, making each session unique and engaging. This casual, inclusive gathering intentionally creates a sense of comfort and openness, recognizing that everyone has different experiences with Islam, Muslims, and the Quran.

Objectives:

1. Cultivate a meaningful relationship with the Quran, both individually and as a community.
2. Build an open and inviting environment where questions are encouraged and diverse perspectives are valued.

RSVP:	https://duke.campusgroups.com/rsvp?id=2270736

The Fajr Breakfast Club meets every Wednesday morning just before sunrise for the first prayer of the day, Fajr. This gathering blends spiritual practice and social connection as students, faculty, staff, alumni, and community members come together in the quiet beauty of the early morning. After prayer, everyone shares a home-cooked, nutritious breakfast prepared by the Chaplain, creating a warm and welcoming environment where meaningful conversations flow naturally. The Chaplain also picks up students from across campus in a Duke van, ensuring that everyone who wants to be part of this spiritual and social community can join. Hosted in the CML office, the Fajr Breakfast Club offers a chance to start the day rooted in faith, friendship, and a sense of belonging.

Objectives:

1. Encourage students to gather for spiritual reflection and prayer.
 2. Strengthen community bonds and belonging across campus.

Kitab Connect is a weekly Quran study group that meets every Tuesday from 6:00 to 7:30 PM. The first 30 minutes are dedicated to reading the Quran in Arabic, followed by an hour of group discussion inspired by the reading. Participants include students, faculty, staff, alumni, and community members, creating a rich and diverse environment for learning. Open to all regardless of Arabic reading ability, Kitab Connect encourages participants to read, listen, or simply share. The discussions are guided by what participants are moved to explore that evening, making each session unique and engaging. This casual, inclusive gathering intentionally creates a sense of comfort and openness, recognizing that everyone has different experiences with Islam, Muslims, and the Quran.

Objectives:

1. Cultivate a meaningful relationship with the Quran, both individually and as a community.
 2. Build an open and inviting environment where questions are encouraged and diverse perspectives are valued.

Where:	Sign in to download the location
RSVP:	https://duke.campusgroups.com/rsvp?id=2274875

The Fajr Breakfast Club meets every Wednesday morning just before sunrise for the first prayer of the day, Fajr. This gathering blends spiritual practice and social connection as students, faculty, staff, alumni, and community members come together in the quiet beauty of the early morning. After prayer, everyone shares a home-cooked, nutritious breakfast prepared by the Chaplain, creating a warm and welcoming environment where meaningful conversations flow naturally. The Chaplain also picks up students from across campus in a Duke van, ensuring that everyone who wants to be part of this spiritual and social community can join. Hosted in the CML office, the Fajr Breakfast Club offers a chance to start the day rooted in faith, friendship, and a sense of belonging.

Objectives:

1. Encourage students to gather for spiritual reflection and prayer.
 2. Strengthen community bonds and belonging across campus.

The Jumu'ah Prayer Service is a weekly gathering offering Duke students a sacred space to observe Friday prayers in a warm and inclusive environment. Rooted in the Islamic tradition of communal worship, this service provides an opportunity for spiritual reflection, connection, and growth. Open to all, the Jumu'ah Prayer Service fosters a sense of belonging, strengthens community ties, and bridges faith with academic, intellectual, and personal development. It serves as both a religious observance and a space for meaningful engagement, supporting Muslim students in their spiritual journey while contributing to Duke's diverse campus life.

Objective:

1. Foster a warm and inclusive environment where students feel safe to practice their faith and grow spiritually.
 2. Build and strengthen meaningful connections among campus community members.
 3. Advance the broader university goal of bridging knowledge, faith, and values of Muslim students.
